DIGITAL LITERACY PROJECT REPORT CSE(0001)

NAME - Ayush Raj

REG.NO - 25BA11407

BRANCH - CSE AI&ML

COURSE - DIGITAL LITERACY(CSE0001)

YEAR - 1 YEAR

DATE - 31 March 2026

SR. No.	Topic	Page
1	Introduction	3
2	Digital Literacy Awareness Infographic	4
3	Digital Portfolio	5
4	Coding & Collaboration Platforms	6
5	Professional Email& Etiquette Guide	7
6	Cybercrime Awareness Case Study& Prevention Guide	8
7	Conclusion	9
8	References	10

INTRODUCTION

In today’s digital-driven world, strong digital skills are essential for academic success and future career growth. This course focuses on building a solid foundation in digital literacy through practical, real-world tasks such as creating content, developing a portfolio, and solving coding challenges.

It also emphasizes responsible online behavior, including communication etiquette, cyber safety, and maintaining a professional digital presence. By combining technical knowledge with ethical awareness, the course helps students develop both competence aND confidence.

Overall, the goal is to prepare students to become skilled and responsible digital citizens, ready to navigate modern academic and professional environments effectively.

Task 1- Digital Literacy Awareness Infographic

For this project, I designed a digital literacy awareness infographic using Canva, a versatile tool that enabled me to create a visually structured and engaging layout with ease. Its flexibility in handling colors, typography, and spacing allowed me to present information in a clear and impactful manner.

The infographic focuses on key aspects of digital literacy, particularly email etiquette and maintaining a professional online presence. It emphasizes the importance of clear communication, respectful interaction, and responsible digital behavior in today's connected world.

What stood out to me during this process was how subtle design elements can significantly influence how information is perceived. Balancing visual appeal with clarity was challenging, but it helped me develop a better understanding of effective communication through design.

Overall, this project enhanced both my creativity and my ability to present meaningful content in a concise and professional way.

Task 2- Digital Portfolio

For my academic and professional development, I have chosen three key platforms: GitHub, LinkedIn, and Kaggle, each serving a distinct purpose in building a strong digital portfolio. GitHub acts as my primary space for managing and showcasing coding projects. It allows me to track progress, collaborate with others, and gradually build a well-structured portfolio by consistently uploading and improving my work.

LinkedIn focuses on professional networking and personal branding. It enables me to connect with industry professionals, highlight my achievements, and stay updated with career opportunities while maintaining an active and engaging profile.

Kaggle supports my interest in data science and machine learning by providing real-world datasets and competitive challenges. Through regular participation, I aim to strengthen my analytical thinking and problem-solving skills.

Together, these platforms will help me develop technical expertise, gain practical exposure, and prepare effectively for my future career.

Task 3 - Explore Coding & Collaboration Platforms

For this task, I used Google Forms and Google Sheets to create and analyze a quiz. Google Forms allowed me to design a structured questionnaire with different types of questions, while its simple interface made customization and sharing efficient. After collecting responses, I used Google Sheets to organize and analyze the data. The automatic arrangement of responses into a spreadsheet made it easy to sort, filter, and interpret the results effectively.

This activity helped me develop practical skills in data collection, management, and basic analysis. It also improved my ability to present information in a clear and organized manner.

Overall, these tools are highly useful for academic work, especially for surveys, research, and group projects, making tasks more efficient and professional.

Task 4 - Professional Email & Etiquette Guide

A common issue in digital communication is the misinterpretation of tone in emails. For example, a brief message like “Finish this by today” may seem direct but can be perceived as rude or overly urgent, leading to confusion or unnecessary stress. Such misunderstandings can negatively impact workplace relationships and overall productivity.

To avoid this, it is important to use clear and polite language. Adding context, such as “Please try to complete this by today if possible. Let me know if you need any help,” makes the message more respectful and easier to understand. Maintaining a professional tone, setting clear expectations, and choosing the appropriate medium—such as a call for urgent matters—can greatly improve communication.

Overall, effective email etiquette ensures clarity, reduces misunderstandings, and promotes a more positive and professional environment.

Task 5 - Cvbercrime Awareness Case Study & Prevention Guide

While exploring cybercrime awareness, I realized how easily personal information can be misused due to simple habits like oversharing online or using weak passwords. Cybercriminals often target these small vulnerabilities rather than complex systems, leading to risks such as identity theft, phishing attacks, and financial loss. This highlighted how even minor carelessness can seriously affect digital security.

As a result, I have decided to improve my password management practices by using strong, unique passwords for different accounts and enabling two-factor authentication wherever possible. These measures significantly reduce the chances of unauthorized access and enhance overall security.

Overall, this activity increased my awareness of online risks and encouraged me to adopt safer digital habits, helping me maintain better control over my personal information.

Conclusion

After completing all five tasks, it is clear that this course provides a well-rounded approach to developing essential digital skills. Each activity focused on a different aspect—from communication and professional identity to technical practice and cybersecurity awareness—creating a balanced and practical learning experience.

The hands-on nature of the tasks played a key role in bridging the gap between theoretical knowledge and real-world application. Whether it was building a digital portfolio, designing an infographic, or understanding online safety, each task contributed to improving both my skills and confidence in using digital tools effectively.

Moreover, the course emphasized responsible digital behavior, which is crucial in today's interconnected world. It not only enhanced my technical abilities but also strengthened my awareness of ethical and professional online conduct.

Overall, this course has prepared me to become a confident, skilled, and responsible digital user, ready to adapt and succeed in both academic and future professional environments.

References

Canva – https://www.canva.com

Linkedin- https://www.linkedin.com

Github- https://www.github.com

Kaggle- https://www.kaggle.com

Hackerrank-https://www.hackerrank.com

Google Form - https://docs.google.com

National Cyber Crime Portal -https://cybercrime.gov.in